

Article Nr : 28328401

Designation : CARLSBOURG BEUR ARDENNE AOP 10 KGX1

Carlsbourg Ardenne Butter 82% Fat - Protected Designation of Origin (PDO)

13/02/2026

General Information

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Legal designation | Butter                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Manufacturer code | BE - L 352 - CE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Customs code      | 04051019                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Regulation        | In accordance with EU 1308/2013 regulation and CXS 279-1971.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Description       | Tasty and authentic, CARLSBOURG Ardenne Butter is the product of pure Ardenne tradition. It is made using high quality cream, obtained from cows milk produced on around 400 farms in the Ardenne region. This butter benefits from the only Protected Designation of Origin given to Belgian butter: the PDO "Beurre d'Ardenne".The designation area of Ardenne butter covers 44 towns and villages, nestling in the contours of the Ardenne hills. This region is well known for the richness of its pastures, which give the butter its full taste and incomparable scent. It will enhance the flavour of brioches, cakes, shortcake, shortcrust pastry, butter cream, etc. Carlsbourg must be savoured! |

List of Ingrédients - Allergen Information

|                     |                             |
|---------------------|-----------------------------|
| List of ingredients | Butter (cow's MILK)         |
| Allergens           | MILK (proteins and lactose) |

Chemical and Physical Criteria at Production Time - typical value (min - max)

|                         |                  |        |      |   |        |
|-------------------------|------------------|--------|------|---|--------|
| Total fat               | g/100g           | (      | 82,0 | - | )      |
| Milk fat                | g/100g           | (      | 82,0 | - | )      |
| Moisture                | g/100g           | (      | -    | - | 16,0 ) |
| Non fat dry matter      | g/100g           | (      | -    | - | 2,0 )  |
| Free Fatty Acids (FFA)  | % as oleic acid  | (      | -    | - | 0,3 )  |
| Peroxide value (PV)     | meq O2/kg        | (      | -    | - | 0,2 )  |
| pH                      |                  | 5,0 (  | 4,7  | - | 5,5 )  |
| Melting point (drop pt) | °C               | 32,0 ( | -    | - | )      |
| Colour                  | yellow (7 to 12) |        |      |   |        |
| Odour and taste         | of butter        |        |      |   |        |

Microbiological Criteria - typical value (min - max)

|                           |         |   |   |   |         |
|---------------------------|---------|---|---|---|---------|
| Contaminating organisms   | CFU/g   | ( | - | - | 1 000 ) |
| Yeasts and moulds         | CFU/g   | ( | - | - | 10 )    |
| Coliforms                 | CFU/g   | ( | - | - | 0 )     |
| Enterobacteriaceae        | CFU/g   | ( | - | - | 10 )    |
| Staphylococcus aureus     | CFU/g   | ( | - | - | 0 )     |
| Salmonella                | CFU/25g | ( | - | - | 0 )     |
| Listeria monocytogenes25G | CFU/25g | ( | - | - | 0 )     |

Nutritional Data - typical value (min - max)

|                     |           |         |   |   |   |
|---------------------|-----------|---------|---|---|---|
| Energy kcal         | Kcal/100g | 743 (   | - | - | ) |
| Energy kJ           | kJ/100g   | 3 054 ( | - | - | ) |
| Fat                 | g/100g    | 82,00 ( | - | - | ) |
| Saturated fatty ac. | g/100g    | 54,40 ( | - | - | ) |
| Carbohydrate        | g/100g    | 0,60 (  | - | - | ) |
| Sugars              | g/100g    | 0,60 (  | - | - | ) |
| Protein             | g/100g    | 0,60 (  | - | - | ) |
| Fibre               | g/100g    | 0,00 (  | - | - | ) |
| Sodium              | g/100g    | 0,01 (  | - | - | ) |
| Salt equivalent     | g/100g    | 0,03 (  | - | - | ) |

Packaging and Preservation Conditions

Article Nr : 28328401

Designation : CARLSBOURG BEUR ARDENNE AOP 10 KGX1

Carlsbourg Ardenne Butter 82% Fat - Protected Designation of Origin (PDO)

13/02/2026

Packaging Carton containing 1 block of 10 kg net wrapped in plastic foil (polyethylene).
Preservation(best before) 100 days at a temperature of max. 6 deg. C.

Other Information

Contaminants EN - Heavy metals : according to EC regulation 915/2023
- Dioxins : according to EU regulation 915/2023
- Pesticides : according to EC regulation 396/2005
- Radioactivity : according to EU regulation (Euratom) 2016/52
- Mycotoxins : according to EU regulation 915/2023
- Antibiotics : according to EU regulation 37/2010

Ionizing treatment EN absence

GMO EN No GMO labelling required in compliance with EC regulations 1829/2003 and 1830/2003.

Origin of raw material EN cow milk